Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show the following reference designators as set forth in the specification:

- (i) radial direction 209 as set forth in specification at paragraph [0023].
- (ii) maximum axial thickness 235 as set forth in specification at paragraph [0028].
- (iii) leading edge 241 as set forth in specification at paragraph [0030].
- (iv) trailing portion 245 as set forth in specification at paragraph [0030].
- (v) expanding passages 249 as set forth in specification at paragraph [0030].

Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to fairly, teach, show or suggest, by either anticipating or rendering obvious, the invention as set forth in the claims of the instant application.

Furthermore, a search made does not detect the combined claimed elements as set forth in the pending claims. Additionally, the reasons for allowance of the claims over the prior art of record is believed to be readily clear, self evident and apparent from the claim language set forth in each of claims 1 and 12, when compared and contrasted with the prior art.

More particularly, the instant invention (as set forth in independent claims 1 and 12) provides for a hard disk drive including a bypass channel formed in the disk housing for directing air flow generated by rotation of a disk. A diffuser is located in the bypass channel adjacent to a downstream side of the disk and includes a plurality of air diverter fins that protrude radially with respect to the disk, such that the diffuser reduces drag from the disk due to disk wake in the bypass channel.

The diffuser is a device which, according to the specification, "provides a gradually expanding passage so that the speed of the air flow can gradually, rather than abruptly, decrease and the pressure can rise." See page 4, paragraph [0009] of specification. The diverter fins are structured so as to "extract more air mass out of the disk stack ... [t]he fins reduce flow-induced vibration of the disks and actuator arm." Id.

Such a claimed structure, according to the specification, "reduces losses in system momentum due to sudden expansion of the air or gas in the drive." Id.

None of the prior art however, does not teach, show or suggest, the diffuser with the diverter fins, as structured in function and design, as set forth in claims 1 and 12 of the instantly claimed invention.

Thus, none of the prior art of record discloses the invention as set forth in the manner, function and relationship relative to other claimed structure as prescribed by the independent claims 1 and 12.

Additionally, none of the prior art of record provides, alone or in combination with the art of record or general knowledge within the art, any suggestion or teaching for the invention as set forth in the independent claims 1 and 12.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
